ANARCHISTS IN SESSION.

Bresci Is Lauded. NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Two hundred Anarchists of various nationalities met last night at Carendon Hall, 116 Eas. Tairteenth Street, and howled for blood. At the same time they openly expressed their sympathy for Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, ridiculed the loyal Italians for holding memorial services and parades for the dead King, and openly advocated the the dead king, and openly advocated the murder of all Kings and Presidents.

"Vive la Bresci!" "Vive la Malatesta!"
"Down with government!" were the cries which followed each speech.

Most of the audience were Italians, who wore pictures of Bresci on their coats, but German. Spanish, French, and Jewish Anarchists were represented. If any police were present they were in attents (othes. Anarchists were represented, it any ponce were present they were in citzens' clothes, and made no attempt to stop the meeting, even when the cries for murder and the royal blood of Kings were loudest.

A Jewish Anarchist, who spoke in English, seemed to get the most vigorous applause. He said in part:

"The ideal Anarchist is the one who talks little and does much. Bresei said very little and did a great deal. Take him as your model, and if you have the necessary courage go and do a fine deed like he did. Then you, too, will be heroes. Study Anarchy and you will discover that it is a protest against the slaughter which is going on at present all over the world. Anarchists are the most peaceable men in the world. President McKinley is not a peaceworld. President McKinley is not a peace-able man when he sends thousands of sol-diers to war, where they kill the innocent and get killed themselves. The German Emperor is not a peaceable man when he said to his troops 'Let no child or woman live in China.' Such rulers as these ought to be hung. Anarchy does not mean guns and daggers. They were invented for the rulers, and are used by them to keep down the poor people."

Peter Esteve, the Spanish Anarchist editor, came over from Paterson for the meeting. He was particularly bitter against the Italian and American press. He insisted that the Anarchists were being willfully misrepresented. He tried to prove that liberty in Italy was unknown.

An energetic Italian speaker who refused to give his name, on the ground that he would be forced to quit his job, spoke against the Italian colony of this city. He said that the previous Italian colony said that the prominent Italians speculathonor crosses which King Humbert sent them to fleece their fellow-Italians.
